

Privacy Policy
Wellington Sri Lankan School online language project 2022

1. Access to the website is to be given by the management committee of the school. This information must not be shared with others.
2. The access is given on an individual basis to participants.
3. Resources downloaded from the modules cannot be copied, or disseminated in anyway, other than for the use of the student or as directed by the project managers and the management committee.
4. Any misconduct such as plagiarism, fake information etc. regarding the project will make participants liable for same.
5. All financial transactions between participants and the school is subject to privacy, according to New Zealand privacy laws.
6. All information regarding participants will be kept private according to New Zealand privacy laws; and reciprocally regarding Wellington Sri Lankan school.
7. Participants will have full access to all data collected, regarding their learning and themselves at all times.
8. Any dispute(s) resolution(s) which may result between any parties involved in the project will be kept private and follow the due process (system) practiced in New Zealand.